

Recent and current attempts by businesses to override Indiana's Do-Not-Call list are attempts to say my rights shouldn't count and anyone who wants to invade my privacy (via telephone solicitations) is welcome to do so. I have registered on Indiana's Do-Not-Call list for a reason--I don't want telemarketing firms or businesses to call me soliciting my opinions, a sale, or any other matter. I should be able to choose who enters my home, in-person or via the telephone. I pay the phone bill--not the telemarketer or their underwriter--and I should be able to choose to say "NO" to these invasions of my privacy. PLEASE SAY NO TO ANY ATTEMPTS TO CHALLENGE INDIANA'S DO-NOT-CALL LIST!
